

Safari Nights

Sleepover - Itinerary

Time	Activity	Comments
4.30pm - onwards	Group arrival	You will be met by the Safari Night Leader upon your arrival Briefing and safety talk (including outline of itinerary, rules and policies, and emergency procedures)
4.45pm	Zoo Trail	Daylight trail around the zoo. You will be given a map upon arrival and you are free to wander the zoo grounds until it is dinner time
6.00pm	Dinner	Your barbeque will now be served at the designated venue. This will be prepared for you by the Safari Night team.
8.00pm	Safari walk	The entire group goes out together (lead by two or more Safari Leaders) on a torch-lit expedition to explore the Zoo after dark.  Note: The specific route of the walk will be dependent on light and weather conditions
9.30pm	Supper	Hot drink and biscuits will be served
10.00pm	Lights out	It is important for animal welfare (and staff!) that lights and noise are out by 10.30pm. At this time, the Safari Night Leader will depart. The overnight staff member will stay (they will be on call in case of emergency). It is the responsibility of the teacher / supervising staff to keep the children indoors for the entire night (this is of paramount importance for their own safety)
6.30am	Wake up call	The group have this time to get themselves up and ready and pack away their personal belongings ready for departure
6.45am	Pack up	Mattresses and carpets need to go back into storage. Tables and chairs need to be set up for breakfast
7.15am	Breakfast	Time for cereal and toast at the Old Elephant House. After a quick breakfast clean up it is time for departure from the Zoo
8.00am	Departure	We hope that you have had a wild time! Please submit your evaluation form to the staff member before you depart.
